

BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of the Application of Southern California Water Company for a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity Pursuant to Public Utilities Code Section 1001 to Construct an 8.4 MW Natural Gas-Fueled Generator Facility in its Bear Valley Electric Service Division.

Application 02-04-001
(Filed April 4, 2002)

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE'S RULING GRANTING REQUEST OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA EDISON COMPANY TO INTERVENE

On May 6, 2002, Southern California Edison Company (Edison) requested approval to intervene in the above-captioned application of Southern California Water Company (SCWC). Edison states it has a significant interest in this proceeding as a result of a current dispute between SCWC and Edison regarding construction of a transmission line. Edison states SCWC is a wholesale customer of Edison. No protests or responses have been filed to Edison's request.

Therefore, IT IS RULED that Southern California Edison Company's request to intervene in Southern California Water Company's Application 02-04-001 is granted.

Dated June 13, 2002, at San Francisco, California.
